Stage 5 students are invited to spend a day in the bush environment around the Field of Mars Reserve (Ryde East) drawing and visually interpreting the details around them. Led by an experienced artist and art teacher, students participate in a series of observation drawing workshops. These workshops will help students to use art to observe, interpret and explore the macro and micro features of our Australian landscape. All art materials are supplied.

Suitable for Stage 5 students.

A maximum of 2 classes can attend per day.

Cost is $8 per student. Includes art materials.

2007 dates:
